

The Guardian

A Monthly Publication of the German Shepherd
Dog Club of Atlanta, Inc. February , Issue, 2012

By now our members and readers have made their New Year resolutions and perhaps a few of us have broken them already.

If you missed our show in Augusta you missed some good dogs and good judging. If you missed the Christmas party at Ron and Nancy Mulvaney's it was a great get together to see old friends from our club and the North Georgia GSD Club.

Let's begin 2012 with a pledge to attend meetings and get your dog to our training classes for a tune up on his or her behavior and your training skills. Everyone is welcome. Directions to the training site are on the website, www.gsdcatlanta.org

For those who missed my brief program about the working dog program at the U. Penn. Here is the website you will find interesting . <http://pennvetwdc.org/>

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is again cautioning consumers that chicken jerky products for dogs (also sold as chicken tenders, strips or treats) may be associated with illness in dogs. In the last 12 months, FDA has seen an increase in the number of complaints it received of dog illnesses associated with consumption of chicken jerky products imported from China. These complaints have been reported to FDA by dog owners and veterinarians. For more information, <http://www.fda.gov/AnimalVeterinary/NewsEvents/CVMUpdates/ucm280586.htm>

The following signs that may occur within hours to days of feeding the products: decreased activity; vomiting; diarrhea, sometimes with blood; increased water consumption and/or increased urination. If the dog shows any of these signs, stop feeding the chicken jerky product. Owners should consult their veterinarian if signs are severe or persist for more than 24 hours.

Remember if you are a GSDC of Atlanta member and you would us to link to your website please contact me at cbattaglia@mindspring.com. Use LINKS as your subject. Send me an email and tell me how you want to be listed and linked. Google spiders find web sites faster if they are linked to other sites. This is a good way to increase your visibility and help your club. Complimentary copies of the Guardian will be sent to your friends and any potential member. The best bargain is a paid advertisement. It is just $12/year for your stud dog, kennel or anything else. Visit our club website site and see some of the new features. (www.gsdcatlanta.org).

Thanks for reading along.

MINUTES OF CLUB MEETINGS: The minutes will be posted on the website.
<http://www.gsdcatlanta.org/>

NEW MEMBERS: NOVEMBER - Jessica Ball

NEW MEMBER APPLICATION - Stephen Gibbia

GUESTS: Guests: Vince Battaglia (I expect you know where to get hold of him) and Farris Lyons, farrislyons@comcast.net.

First reading of membership application for Stephen Gebbia, locksmith and owner of one rescued GSD, Maggie. He is interested in training classes, matches and shows.

Now to see what the website currently has up for minutes. I think I only owe October and November at the moment, but need to see if there are now board and general headers. If not, I might just merge them into single documents per month with a page break and save everyone a headache.
